

Empower your employees with a Self-Service portal

Protel Labs' Employee Self Service, positively affects employee performance and productivity by providing instant resolution.

Save time by allowing your employees to access as well as update their personal details with the employee self-service portal and at the same time enabling project managers to check employee details for effective decision making. Our ESS system also helps close the gap between Management and employee with faster and effective two-way communication. It lets them link with the processes that fill their needs without going through multi hierarchy levels.

Our ESS module improves business processes significantly and provides dynamic information sharing capabilities across the organization.
